CME AND CEU CREDITS AVAILABLE

As a Codequest attendee, you are eligible to claim CME or CEU credits. Consult your course handbook for instructions on how to claim them. Claim credits within 30 days of the course date.

CME for Physicians

The American Academy of Ophthalmology is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Designation Statement

The American Academy of Ophthalmology designates this live activity for a maximum of 4 AMA PRA Category I Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Certificate of Completion

AAPC Certificate

AAPC will honor 1.0-for-1.0 CEUs for any live event offering CME credit or AMA PRA Category I Credit™. A certificate of attendance or completion listing the total CMEs possible for the offering is necessary to show participation. Physicians are advised to claim only the actual hours that they were present during the education. We ask that AAPC-certified members abide by this request also. One hour of instruction is worth one CEU. (Source: <https://www.aapc.com/medical-coding-education/help/#tab-3>. Accessed on Oct. 13, 2022).

IJCAHPO CE Credits

This course is eligible for 4 Category A credits.
